Thank you for your support.

“Books are the carriers of civilization. Without books, history is silent, literature dumb, science crippled, thought and speculation at a standstill. They are engines of change, windows on the world, (as a poet said) lighthouses erected in the sea of time. They are companions, teachers, magicians, bankers of the treasures of the mind. Books are humanity in print.”

– BARBARA W. TUCHMAN

Honor with Books

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
WINDWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE LIBRARY

The Windward Community College Library invites you to participate in Honor with Books. This program provides you with an opportunity to honor a special person in your life by placing a bookplate in his or her honor in a newly purchased book in the subject area of your choosing. Possible subjects include:

- Arts
- Careers
- Education
- Hawaiian
- Humanities
- Natural Sciences
- Social Sciences

Contributions may be made:

- To give thanks
- To acknowledge special achievements
- To mark special occasions such as retirements, graduations, birthdays, anniversaries, and weddings
- To celebrate education
- As a memorial tribute

Recognition

A $100 gift supports placement of a commemorative bookplate bearing the name of the honoree, the date, and the donor's name.

A $500 gift supports placement of six commemorative bookplates.

A gift of $10,000 or more endows a book fund for a specific area of study. Books that are acquired with these funds will be plated with custom-designed bookplates, and the collection will grow in perpetuity. In addition, your name will be listed in the Library's online catalog as a part of each book's reference.

When you make your tax deductible gift to the Windward Community College Library's Honor with Books program, a letter of acknowledgment and one copy of the bookplate will be sent to you, and another to the honoree or someone else you designate.
